

Dialogue with god

Frontline divided
Saved or forsaken programmed behaviour
repeating the phrases
selfimposed selfimportance?
Or just raging for profit?
Paralyzed and shocked
A request for truth

Dialogue with god
When you're crying
Dialogue with god
When they're dying

Psychosis revealed
Signs they see
Selffulfilled prophecy
Raising crimson skies
Antidotes for antigods
Appeal to common sense
Doctrines to be doubted
In a world of breeding fear

Dialogue with god
When you're crying
Dialogue with god
When they're dying

Someone has to put a stop to this shit
I don't have no time for that kind of thing
No one cares for no one in a world of hate
And I do resign put a bullet in your head
Someone has to put me in a straitjacket
Voices in my head just speak to me
I'm just losing hope for world improvement
Ratatatang! Put a bullet in my head!
Ratatatang! Put a bullet in my head!
Ratatatang! Put a bullet in my head!

Insane or sane
By society rejected
Hear my call
Until time is left Inhumane humane
Stigmatizing fools
Enthroned your god
The master is you!
